64       Together, we have explored places like Costa Rica, Mesa Verde, Japan, Sayulita, Vietnam, Thailand, Los Cabos, Oaxaca, Vancouver, Mexico City, and many more. </

66       After 2 years of COVID restrictions worldwide, in 2022 we ventured back out, but this time, in a different way. In March 2022, we became the tour/experience
67       guides for a group of 8 American foodie friends. We took inspiration from Netflix' The Taco Chronicles and created an itinerary based on different kinds of tacos,
68       where to eat them, and places to explore around Mexico City.
69       Then, because we need "Us" time, we travelled to the other side of the world to experience the culture, food, and everything else that Istanbul, Turkey, has to
70       offer.

Istanbul

Quick guide of places to go and food to eat.

Take me

¡Hola! We are Omar and Mayra. We are a married couple who love to travel.

As Mexican immigrants ourselves, we arrived separately to the States 27 years ago from our homestate of Chihuahua, went to the same high school -- NO, we are not high school sweethearts -- and later, started dating and since then, we've traveled together. More than 12 years ago, here we still are.

Together, we have explored places like Costa Rica, Mesa Verde, Japan, Sayulita, Vietnam, Thailand, Los Cabos, Oaxaca, Vancouver, Mexico City, and many more.

After 2 years of COVID restrictions worldwide, in 2022 we ventured back out, but this time, in a different way. In March 2022, we became the tour/experience guides for a group of 8 American foodie friends. We took inspiration from Netflix' The Taco Chronicles and created an itinerary based on different kinds of tacos, where to eat them, and places to explore around Mexico City.

Then, because we need "Us" time, we travelled to the other side of the world to experience the culture, food, and everything else that Istanbul, Turkey, has to offer.

Enjoy the journey of experiencing CDMX and Istanbul with us!

MDWanderlust About CDMX Israel Travel with Us

CDMX - Ciudad de Mexico

As we mentioned, on our trip to CDMX, we were your guide for a group of 10 individuals, ourselves included. We created an 7-day eating/experience/itinerary, provided interpretation, and ground transportation. And yes, where needed, some bagging was completed - this was only done when price comparisons were completed, and a fair price for some articles and vendors was agreed upon. This is a sneak peak at the first three days of our trip.

Other Itinerary Items:

Clearly, these slides do not picture the complete list of places and eats we had over 10-days. Below is a list places and dishes to try:

#	Name	Location	Notes
1	Museo de Antropología	Chapultepec	Plan for at least half a day as the museum is large. Approx. $4.26 USD/pp.
2	El Hidalguense	Roma Sur	Traditional Hidalgo in-ground cooked Barbacoa, casseroles, and blue corn tortillas.
3	Bolichero 21	Benito Juárez	Peruvian-Mexican fusion including fresh seafood, anticuchos de cordero, grilled octopus, ceviche, and whole fish a la plancha.
4	Señor Taco	Condesa	Airbnb experience to learn to make traditional corn tortillas—no masa harina here.
5	Tlaxcala	Estado de Tlaxcala	Visit the bus station for tacos of all kinds of guisados like chiles rellenos, rejas, etc.
6	Central de Artesanos	Estado de Tlaxcala	Visit the bus station for tacos of all kinds of guisados like chiles rellenos, rejas, etc.
7	Mercedero Sello Sanchez Piedras	Estado de Tlaxcala	Get a Carrito -- a gigantic sandwich with local bread, milanesa, cheese, and guacamole.
8	Taquero los Compadres	Estado de Tlaxcala	Tacos Arabes are the thing to order.
9	Chirampa Humedada, A.C.	Xochimilco	Learn about ancestral agriculture in modern times in this farm floating on a lake.

MDWanderlust About CDMX Istanbul Travel with Liz

CDMX - Istanbul, Turkey

Our journey to Istanbul began six months in advance when we found cheap RT Rights using our sister's Cheap Rights membership. We travelled in early May to celebrate our 12th anniversary and to take advantage of the spring weather. Because of COVID resulting in us as immediately our Rights to Istanbul was cancelled several times, making us miss our international KLM Royal Dutch route from Houston-Amsterdam-Istanbul. After several hours on the phone with United Airlines and KLM, we travelled to Houston, spent the night, and cut our Istanbul time a day short. After arriving in the evening, somewhat alone, and some rethinking, we took "Right" into our Turkish adventure.

Other Itinerary Items:

Clearly, these slides do not picture the complete list of places and items we had over a week. Below is a list of places and dishes to try:

#	Name	Location	Notes
1	Keske		Great dessert made with phyllo, rose water, pistachios, and a big hunk of Turkish ice cream.
2	Turkish Breakfast		Tapas style and it comes with about 20 different mild dishes: eggs, cheese, honey, olives, tomatoes, bread and much more.
3	Siriz	Isitil Street	Think of it as a Turkish bagel.
4	Papazci	Bayrampa	Turkish baked potatoes are 3 meals in themselves. It's an experience.
5	Meat/Meat	Taksim	Slow cooked lamb, served with small dishes, rice, bread. And honey over cracked lamb, yum!
6	Egyptian Bazaar		Spices, cheeses, pickles, meat, fruit, nuts, jewelry. The bazaar is an experience.
7	Blue Mosque and Hagia Sofia	Sultanahmet	The grounds are beautiful, including an original Egyptian chandelier. If going to the mosque, remember to cover up.
8	Paragliding		Airbnb experience: drive to the outskirts of Istanbul through rural roads, to the edge of the Black Sea and jump off to glide in the air.

Travel with Us

In completing our first CDMX trip as tour guides, we've decided to continue on with the tradition. Twice per year, in the Spring and Fall equinoxes, we will take a group of 10 individuals and guide them through this wonderful city.

CDMX in the spring starts with the blooming Jacaranda trees.

CDMX in the Fall can include Independence Day celebrations and Día de Muertos.

If you are interested in traveling with MXWanderlust to CDMX, enter your email and check the trip you are interested in. We will contact you with trip information, availability, and other details.
